Staff and Commissioner Comments

Staff announced that Commissioner Vazquez resigned from the Historical Commission and there is now an open position. Staff has started the process of looking at updating the historic preservation code and will be meeting with Michelle Thompson with DAHP in February to discuss. Discussing the historic code will be an item on the February 24th agenda. Commissioner Di Filippo updated the commission on the website research she has done so far and provided links to other jurisdiction's historic preservation websites.
