5. Old Business

6. Other Items & Reports

6.1 Financial Report

Ashia Gustafson presented a review of the 2026 budget through March to the Library Board members.

6.2 Librarian's Report

Programming:

Children: The egg hunt had 504 people attend, which is 140 more than 2025, and over 10,000 eggs were hidden throughout the Library. Science night with SDSU's Natural Science Department had 78 participants. Katherine Eberline will begin school visits to talk about the Summer Reading Program at the end of April.

Teen: Jenny Kluck partnered with Mikaela Neubauer for the Bad Art Program on March 17 which saw 13 people attend. Air dry clay trinket dishes was the workshop Wednesday in March. Four teens attended Graphic Novel club and six teens attended book club.

Adult: The 3rd annual craft swap had over 120 donors, and within the first 10 minutes of the donor preview, 105 people walked through the door. Overall, 260 people attended and $1,128 was raised via freewill donations, which was split between the Friends of the Library and the Brookings Arts Council. Silent Book Club had 8 people attend. Question, Persuade, Refer (QPR) Training will be offered in partnership with SDSU Extension on Wednesday, April 29 at 6pm. This hour and a half long training provides attendees with a simple three-step system that prepares them to be a source for suicide prevention in their families and communities.

Tech: Staff is looking into the cost and feasibility of changing or updating the printing/scanning/faxing setup for the public copier. Nancy Swenson is talking to Revize, the Library's website host, about the new ADA requirements and how make sure the Library's website meets those requirements.

Other: The Friends of the Library Spring book sale is April 15 – April 19.

Other: The next Friends of the Library meeting on April 21 will include a discussion about distributing the funds from the Spring book sale. A majority of Library Board members expressed interested in attending the meeting so Ashia Gustafson will post a notice of quorum.

Other: Staff training around patron privacy and intellectual freedom occurs April 17. The session will be recorded and Ashia Gustafson will send the Library Board members a link to the video for possible continuing education credits.

Other: National Library Week runs April 19-25 and staff have the opportunity to participate in themed dress up days.
